A NEW ERA

Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come. He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you. (John 16:13-14)

Disclaimer, according to people's affidavits, there was fraud in the recent election. It was overlooked by those in authority. I agree.

While praying on November 19, 2020, the Lord said, "You have entered into a new era that you have not been in before. My church was not prepared for the onslaught of evil that came against it and your nation. The doctrine of the devil of tolerance, acceptance and unbiblical grace that was embraced by many ministers and Christians brought this about.

The worldly, unspiritual ministers, led the church into a battle it was destined to lose, because it was powerless against the devil. The church will have to take up their sword to do what I have called them to do, even as I told my disciples to get a sword as I was headed to the cross. I am with you and the gates of hell shall not prevail against you."

Jesus said, he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one. And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said unto them, It is enough. (Lk. 22:35b, 22:38)

The Lord had been speaking to me about our nation and the election for several weeks prior to this. On December 4, 2020, the Lord Jesus told me not to post anymore on Facebook about the nation or election. I didn't. He also had me change the way I was praying about things. I knew, then, that we entered into a new era that would require the Christian to crucify the flesh and walk in the Spirit, if they were going to overcome the devil. A form of godliness without the power of God would be laughed at by the devil.

Jesus had never told his disciples to get a sword before the scriptures above. He was speaking of a literal sword that could be used as a weapon. He foresaw the battle that was about to take place in the natural and in the spirit. Today, we also have the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God. I knew when the Lord revealed the above scriptures that our nation would experience more violence. It is not over yet.

On December 4, 2020, the Lord told me not to say anything else on Facebook about the election because people were not in a position to hear it. I knew then, Mr. Trump would not be president for the next four years and my mind did not want to accept it. He gave me permission to speak on January 20th. He gave me seven scriptures to confirm people were not in a place to hear it. They are found in Revelation 2:7,11,17,29 and 3:6,13,22. Jesus said it seven times, “He that hath an ear let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.”

Before December 4th, I did not have an ear to hear either. Just like others, I had been consumed with election fraud, court hearings and vote manipulation, etc. I wanted to charge the government with a water pistol or something. Ha!

I couldn't hear God for hearing all the theories about what the election outcome would be. I learned from this and I think we all could learn. Remember, I had started praying with fasting to hopefully change things on November 13, 2020.

I hit a solid wall, in the Spirit, and labored day after day for hours, trying to change it, but got no where. The Spirit of God never took hold with me against the things that were going on. Finally, after several weeks of intense prayer, I realized my prayers were not working. God never misses it, so I knew I needed to pray differently.

I asked the Lord to help me and I was impressed to pray, “Lord let your thoughts become my thoughts and your ways become my ways and your plans become my plans.” I prayed this way, off and on, for about a week and a half. I didn't hear anything I knew for sure was God during that time. Oh, I did lose 28 lbs!

Finally, my mind was freed from all the theories about the election and I heard the Lord clearly! A miracle! He said, “The way you are praying will not work and that is why My Spirit hasn't taken hold with you against this. You have become bitter and incensed about all this. You have entered into a new era that will require different spiritual armor for this season. You must walk in love and take off the cloak of bitterness. You must also yield to my compassion instead of anger, or your prayers are not going to be effective. When I was crucified on the cross some of my dying words were, “Father forgive them for they know not what they do.” When Steven was stoned he said, “Lord, lay not this sin to their charge.” Are you greater than your master, and will you not yield to My love and compassion for this lost and dying world? Obey Me and you will see great results in your life.”

Suddenly! The compassion of God welled up in my spirit and I found myself weeping and crying for those who had committed error and violated the law.

An overwhelming love for those who seemed to desire evil in our nation filled me. For the first time in my election prayers, the Spirit of God had taken hold with me to pray! I cannot describe, in the English language, His love and compassion flowing through me for our nation. I was caught up in His Glory! Heaven had come down to earth!

Since that time, He has taught me so many things that I can't share them all here. I humbly submit to you that I have heard His voice and He is with us. Please don't think your prayers about the election failed. The Lord revealed to me that the church was behind in its praying about our nation and we have to catch up. We should have been praying intensely about the election, etc, a few years back, not just at the last minute. We must continue in prayer and the Lord will lead us in exactly what to pray and do.

Some of these things that we have prayed take time to change, sometimes several years. The prayer of faith will not work in changing our nation because other people's wills are involved, even though all prayer must be prayed with faith. The prayer of faith is praying about your individual needs, not the needs of the entire nation.

It takes intercessory prayer to change these things, which takes time, and help from the Holy Spirit. If you have on the cloak of bitterness and anger, I encourage you to obey what the Lord told me. Take it off. Walk in love and yield to the compassion of God, and things will change for the better for our nation. Let us continue to pray earnestly for those in authority and catch up on our praying. Things will change for the better if we do. We are in an era that requires being led by His Spirit in prayer, and in our everyday lives.

ADDRESS

I sensed it was the will of God for Mr. Trump to be elected in his first run for president and I voted for him in the primary and main election. He did implement a lot of orders to help our nation and turn it around. There were many, who desire socialism and a one world government, who despised him for these things. He had very few friends, in high places, and made very many enemies. Their goal was and is to destroy him as is seen by their present words and actions.

I also believe that it would have been very good for him to be re-elected to his second term. I believe God thought the same thing. Many other Christians and ministers believed the same thing. Many declared it publicly and boldly that it was the will of God. Some are still confident that he will be placed back into the presidency this year and write it, and declare it. Some of my very good friends have said this to me. I know many have great hope and I don't want to discourage anyone, and I respond to them accordingly with love and appreciation.

I certainly do not know it all, and I am human and I can miss it. Dad Hagin used to say in his meetings, "Is there anyone in here that has never missed it? If there is, raise your hand and we will have an altar call for liars. He would go on to say, "We all have missed it at one time or the other in our Christian walk." What we believe is directly proportional to what we hear, read and say. If you hear something long enough, right or wrong, you will believe it is true.

Jesus Speaks About Prophets

Jesus Christ appeared to Dad Hagin in 1987 and talked with him for two hours and fifty-three minutes. He discussed several of the ministry offices with him during that time. One of the offices was the ministry of the prophet. Jesus also appeared to him in 1959 and talked with him about the prophets office for an hour and a half. This can all be found in the books, I Believe In Visions and He Gave Gifts Unto Men.

In the 1959 vision, Jesus said to him, "There is a difference between the Old Testament prophet and the New Testament prophet. That is where many folks miss it today. They try to give the New Testament prophet the same status as the Old Testament prophet, and he doesn't have the same status." Jesus continued, "Under the New Covenant, I didn't put the prophet in that office to lead or guide believers. Every believer has the Holy Spirit in him to lead and guide him; each believer can hear from God for himself. Therefore, under the New Covenant, it is unscriptural to seek guidance through a prophet."

Following that wisdom, from Jesus, would solve a lot of the speculations being proclaimed today about our nation. It is only when we stop listening to all the assumptions, about the election, that we clearly hear the voice of His Spirit. We all are to be led by the Spirit of God, not by our heads.

A prophet is a ministry gift given by God to the Church. No one can make himself a prophet or call himself to be a prophet. God alone calls and set prophets in the Church. A prophet's primary purpose and main ministry is to preach or teach the Word, or to be both a teacher and a preacher of the Word. Prophesying is not the main thrust of the prophet's ministry.

The prophet may not know what his subject is until he gets up to speak. He speaks from the light of a sudden revelation at the moment. However, his subject is always the Word of God. Many times, God reveals to the prophet the mind of God about the situation at hand, but not always. The prophet's ministry is not to predict who the president is going to be during each election. God can reveal it, but many times He does not. Many think because someone prophesied correctly, one time, that they can never miss it. No one is infallible. No one, that means me and you too.

*...Believe in the LORD your God, so shall ye be established; believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper.
(2 Chronicles 20:20b)*

The above scripture has been misunderstood by many recently. It is true, but prophets do not lead, guide and direct what we believe in the New Testament. We believe the Bible and we are to be led by the Spirit of God in the New Testament, not by prophets.

You may think I am against this office, but I am not. I know a lot about this office, from my own personal experience, but that does not mean that I know everything. I do know that if a prophet keeps trying to come up with something to prophesy, the devil will accommodate him/her and give them false words they think are from God.

Yes, a true prophet can be deceived by getting into the flesh, mind and looking at natural events trying to predict the future. I heard someone say, international prophet so and so prophesied Mr Trump would win his second term. I immediately said to myself, "It is a sure thing that he won't because that person has missed it so many times, you can't believe what they prophesy." Millions of Christians still believe this person's prophesies.

*For all the Athenians and strangers which were there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear some new thing.
(Acts 17:21)*

In the Apostle Paul's day, people spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell or hear some new thing. It is the same today, for very many Christians. They scourer the internet trying to find some hidden, secret information. They don't realize it was probably placed there just to hypnotize and incite them into believing something that is absolutely not true. Then they tell many others.

If we focus on the internet, and assumptions about what is going to happen in our nation, we will miss what God is saying. I am not saying we should not have a natural understanding of what is happening around us, but we should not be consumed with it. We should be consumed with reading the Bible and seeking God.

The Problem Is Not New

Why is our nation in the trouble it is in today? It is not a new conspiracy, it is the reality of what the church and nation allowed years ago that got us to this point.

In two landmark decisions, Engle V. Vitale on June 25, 1962, and Abington School District V. Schempp on June 17, 1963, the Supreme Court declared school sponsored prayer and Bible readings unconstitutional.

In 1960, I was in the first grade. When these rulings occurred I was in the second and third grade. I remember praying with my teacher every morning after the principle read the Bible over the loud speaker for all the school to hear. We would then stand and face the flag and say the pledge of allegiance. We also were corrected for misbehaving by our teacher, and paddled if necessary. We were taught to say yes ma'am and yes sir to adults. Our parents made us mind too. If we got paddled at school, we got spanked at home too.

There were other events that took place, but when prayer and Bible reading were declared unconstitutional in schools, our society started to decline in morals and values.

Another landmark decision was Roe V. Wade, on January 22, 1973. The United States Supreme Court ruled that the Constitution of the United States protects a pregnant woman's liberty to choose to have an abortion without excessive government restriction. The right to kill a baby before it was born, in the mothers womb.

This all began about fifty-nine years ago and we are still looking for a new conspiracy about evil in the land. It is not new. The church and nation let the devil in 59 years ago, and he has gained more ground in every arena of our lives and nation. All these years, the church has been mostly complacent about these things.

Now the devil is ruling in our nation. Evil spirits are creating havoc throughout our country. I know I sound dismal, but I am not through yet. Homosexuality, lesbianism, transgender myths and mind boggling debauchery has slapped the sleeping church in the face and dares it to challenge them. All the while the church has partied, socialized and learned they have no responsibilities from many deceived preachers.

Pedophilia has been exposed in the church on a level that seems unbelievable. Same-sex marriage is embraced by many mainline denominations. False doctrine is rampant in the church as it is declared there is no need for the Holy Ghost. Many that used to be sold out to God have backslid and sold out to the worldly culture of our day. Many that profess Christ have never been born again and are on their way to hell. You can see we don't have to look for more reasons as to why we have all the corruption we do in the political realm, social realm, financial realm and spiritual realm.

The Shocking Truth

The disobedience of the church first, and nation second, has brought these things upon us. God didn't do it, but He permitted us to be in the situation we are in now. He told us in His Word the consequences for disobedience. Of course, the false doctrine that has been proclaimed to the church for about fifteen years has been there are no consequences for sin. We have been weighed in the balance and found wanting.

Jesus said to Dad Hagin on September 2, 1950, "America is receiving her last call. Some nations already have received their last call and never will receive another." That statement should sober us up and make us pay attention, but many Christians don't care.

Dad Hagin said, "Judgment has come to America, and judgment is yet to come. The only thing that can save America from the judgment of God is genuine repentance — a turning to God." Those were his words, that many of those he taught and trained for ministry do not believe today. His ministry was the forerunner to the second coming of the Lord Jesus Christ, just as John the Baptist was the forerunner of the first coming of Jesus Christ. His ministry was to make ready a people prepared for the Lord's second coming.

And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.
(Luke 1:17)

There is a difference between John the Baptist's ministry and Kenneth Erwin Hagin's ministry. John embodied the forerunner of Christ's first coming by himself. Dad Hagin started a spiritual movement that would be the forerunner of the second coming of Christ.

I would encourage you to get the book, "I Believe In Visions" and read chapter two and you will know everything that Jesus told him. You can go to my website, www.rgm.me and read his vision of the future of America from 1950.

Sadly, the false doctrine of “its not my fault Christianity,” has permeated the church. It is our fault just as it was Adam and Eve’s fault because God told them so. He judged them for their disobedience. The other false doctrine is Jesus paid for all my sins so now I do not suffer consequences for my disobedience. The only sins that Jesus has paid for is your confessed and forsaken sin after you are born again. If you continue in sin afterwards you will eventually be judged for it.

Christians look at God’s judgement as punishment because they do not understand it. It is actually the love and mercy of God being extended to you to get your attention, to stop greater destruction in your life. God is not sending anyone to hell, you send yourself. If you bypass the stop sign on the hill of Golgotha, where Jesus hung on the cross, you will go to hell. Turn to Him and His mercy and grace will be given to you. There is a hell to shun and a heaven to gain! God help us all!

Election

Many Christians and others voted for Mr. Trump. Prophecy after prophecy was given that he would be elected to a second term. Some are still declaring he will be president again as soon as March of this year or later. They are adamant we will replace Mr. Biden soon.

I admire that steadfastness, but with love I will tell you, by the Word of the Lord, that he will not be president unless he runs again and is elected in the next presidential runoff. There are reasons, but I don’t have space to cover them all here. Remember, I don’t know it all, but I believe I have the wisdom of God about this. It was hard for me to accept, but God always is patient with me and waits until I understand His thinking.

A couple of my friends were concerned about Mr. Trump not getting re-elected because of something similar to what I am about share with you. One told me that they didn’t share it because other Christians might stone them. They were for Mr. Trump being elected, just as I.

The reason can be found in the scriptures, in Daniel chapter four, according to what the Lord revealed to me. He always gives me the principle in the Bible when He speaks to me about things like this. Now, I am not looking for a stoning session either, so please have mercy on me.

In Daniel chapter four, King Nebuchadnezzar had a dream that he did not know the meaning of. It disturbed him, and wanting to know what it meant, He called all the wise men of his kingdom to tell him the interpretation of his dream.

The magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and the soothsayers were called, but they could not tell him what the dream meant. Finally, Daniel came before him and the Spirit of God revealed to him what the King's dream meant. If you read the passage you can see Daniel did not want to tell him what it meant because it was not all good.

Daniel said, "This is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of the most High, which is come upon my lord the king: That they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and they shall wet thee with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over thee, till thou know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will. And whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the tree roots; thy kingdom shall be sure unto thee, after that thou shalt have known that the heavens do rule. Wherefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable unto thee, and break off thy sins by righteousness, and thine iniquities by shewing mercy to the poor; if it may be a lengthening of thy tranquillity." (Daniel 4:24-27)

About twelve months later it came to pass. The king spake, and said, Is not this great Babylon, that I have built for the house of the kingdom by the might of my power, and for the honour of my majesty?

While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, to thee it is spoken; The kingdom is departed from thee. (Daniel 4:30-31)

King Nebuchadnezzar was driven from men, and did eat grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hairs were grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws. He lived like that for seven years, basically out of his mind. At the end of that time, he lifted up his eyes to heaven and began to praise and magnify God. He humbled himself before the God of heaven and God restored to him his kingdom. See Daniel chapter four.

Now I Nebuchadnezzar praise and extol and honour the King of heaven, all whose works are truth, and his ways judgment: and those that walk in pride he is able to abase. (Daniel 4:37)

Our dear Mr. Trump took a lot of the credit for the good things that were done. It was God doing it through him that he failed to truly understand. That is why nothing worked for him in being re-elected. Now, he is eating grass like an ox and needs to acknowledge the God of heaven as the one who gave him the ability to accomplish what he did. The Bible really makes it plain. No flesh should glory in His presence. (1 Corinthians 1:29)
