A GREAT EFFECTUAL DOOR

But I will tarry at Ephesus until Pentecost. For a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries. (1 Corinthians 16:8-9)

PATTI, RANDALL, & RANDALL GRIER JR.

I yielded to the Spirit along with others in his meetings. That is not to say that I have never missed it. I believe we all have, at times, so I am not finding fault.

The Apostle Paul said, “A great door and effectual is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries.” In the mid to late nineties I found out exactly what he was talking about. I experienced great effectual doors being opened unto me. This door is not a natural door, it is a great, effectual opportunity where one is anointed to see the power of God in demonstration. There is usually much prayer preceding this, by the one, who the Spirit of God opens the door for.

My Experience

I had been attending Dad Hagin’s Holy Ghost meetings across the United States in the 1990’s. I witnessed a lot of manifestations of the Holy Ghost and quiet a few manifestations that were just people putting on things in the flesh. Of course, people yielding to the flesh were not Dad Hagin’s fault. I also believe the people who were missing it meant well, but just didn’t really know the Holy Ghost.

I discovered that Dad Hagin was teaching about a deeper experience, in God, than I was experiencing. I listened, intently, as he would tell of experiences that he had in the Spirit. I also saw him yield to the Holy Ghost and at times get lost in the Spirit. I had heard the term “lost in the Spirit” since I was a little boy attending a pentecostal church. I witnessed many of the old time pentecostals get lost in the Spirit as a child and teenager. My daddy was one of them.

I had experienced yielding to the Holy Ghost, but I developed a hunger for a deeper experience. I had this hunger for a while but nothing deeper ever seemed to happen. Finally, I wanted God so much that I began to intensely seek Him. I prayed over a period of days and weeks as much as I could. I laid my all on the altar, so to speak, and dedicated and consecrated myself completely to God. Nothing much seemed to occur, to begin with, but I was determined to breakthrough.

During this seeking time, I was fellowshiping with some ministers one day. We were just talking about general things. Suddenly, the Holy Ghost spoke in my spirit. He said, "Why don't you quit talking to them and come and talk with me." I was amazed! I sensed He was going to get grieved because I kept on talking with them. Finally, I politely dismissed myself and went to a private place to pray. I knelt down on my knees and the glory of God coursed all through my being! I was filled with His Glory and I never wanted to leave His presence! I had finally broke through, what I call, the veil of the flesh and entered into, what I call, the holy of holies.

There are no human words that can describe this place in the Spirit. One can tell about it, but it must be experienced for one to understand it. I was living and walking, totally, in the Spirit. I knew what it meant. It had been a journey of prayer, dedication and commitment to God but I had entered a door that was opened unto me in the Spirit.

Once a person enters this place, nothing else will ever satisfy them. I believe that many have no idea what I am speaking of. I say this not to find fault, but to encourage Christians, especially ministers, to enter into this place. This must not be lost in the church - we must all take our place and enter in.

The Spirit Wakes Me Up

I went to bed, in the Spirit, after obeying the Holy Ghost by dismissing myself from the ministers and praying. Before day, the next morning, the Spirit of God woke me up quoting this scripture to me.

And now, O Lord my God, thou hast made thy servant king instead of David my father: and I am but a little child: I know not how to go out or come in. (1 Kings 3:7)

The Holy Spirit spoke this scripture to me for a long while that morning. I went to bed humbling myself before the Lord. I told Him that I did not know how to do what He was asking me to do. He revealed this verse to me and said that is the proper attitude that anyone must have to be acceptable in His Kingdom. Solomon said, I am a little child and I know not how to go out or to come in. In our day of learning and educating ourselves, humility is the only character that the Lord Jesus Christ approves of.

I know not how to go out or come in, is not a popular idea today. The Lord desires that we be utterly dependent upon Him in all our ways. I would find myself weeping before the Lord as His presence surrounded me. It was so glorious and beyond anything on earth. It was a place, in the Spirit, that I absolutely knew He was in me and I was in Him. It was not a faith confession, it was a living reality!

The Door

I've had many supernatural, spiritual experiences that were given to me by the Lord Jesus. I don't have the space to tell them all. I had been invited to speak, for a few days, at a church in a rural area. I was tired when I went to bed the night before. The next morning, about 4:00 a.m., the Spirit of God visited me in my hotel room.

I was awakened with the Word of the Lord speaking to me audibly in that hotel room. He said, "A great door and effectual has been opened unto you and there are many adversaries." It was so sacred that I did not move because I thought it might hinder what the Spirit of God was saying to me. I was filled with energy and strength, and all tiredness was instantly gone. His voice spoke to me for a little over an hour. I finally got out of bed, opened my Bible, and found the scripture. I had no revelation of this verse before that time. I did not understand what the Apostle Paul was talking about until then.

I knew, by revelation, that the Lord would pour out His Spirit in this rural church I was speaking at. Many would have an encounter with God like they never had before. This church was a praying church and they were seeking God for a move of His Spirit. Kindly I say, many have no desire for this and don't seek Him. If anything, many desire that God don't show up so they can get out and party again.

That is why the church, as a whole, doesn't witness the gifts of the Spirit or receive the five fold ministry offices, given by the Lord Jesus Himself. The Bible plainly tells us to desire spiritual gifts. God forgive the church for locking you out of their programs, theatrical productions, and concerts of entertainment. (Rev. 3:14-22) They know not what they do, even though I do not know how someone could be so spiritually blind.

Sadly, the day will soon come when they will weep, travail and yearn for His presence, but He will not accept the invitation. A spiritual deadness will engulf them, and they will fade away into the world that they love so much. Many that are well-known today will disappear off the stage as the Lord works His plan in the church. Of course, I don't want to see anyone removed, but I do, greatly, desire to see the plan of God come to pass. I know there are others who desire the same thing.

When I went to church, in that rural area, the Spirit of God invaded the atmosphere. People began to yield to His Spirit, speak in tongues, prophesy, dance in the Spirit (not kangaroo hop in the flesh like most do today and think it is God), sing in the Spirit, run in the Spirit, be slain in the Spirit. Most churches would be scared to death if this happened in their service today. They would want to have people placed in mental institutions.

The gifts of the Spirit were in full operation in this rural meeting. The Lord gave me words of knowledge and words of wisdom for most of the people in attendance. To God be all the Glory! It changed people's lives in a dramatic fashion. They wanted more and more of God - not entertainment.

The meeting was only scheduled for a few days, but it continued on for almost a month. Not every single day, but every week we would have meetings and His Spirit would be poured out on us. Many people came into the church and joined it through this miraculous, effectual open door of the Spirit. This happened exactly like the Lord said it would.

I have walked through many spiritual doors since that first time. In fact, the meetings we hold today are the results of a door the Lord opened and told me to enter in. Many have been blessed and many will be blessed as their eyes are opened and they obey and attend. There will be a yearning for God in the heart of many ministers and then it will flow out to the people. They will come as they hear His voice calling them. Come and dine, the Master's calling, come and dine. He is speaking to your spirit today. Come and dine.

Another Door

I stepped through another effectual, spiritual door and saw miraculous results. I was invited to speak at a certain church for several days. A Spirit of intercession came upon me during this time. I began to have intense times of prayer. I was so overwhelmed by the desire of the Spirit to see people's lives changed that I took their burdens upon myself. During prayer, at times, all I could do was groan intensely in the Spirit. I could not speak one English word or in other tongues. I was taking the place of another, as that is what true Bible intercession is.

At times, the burden was so great that I felt like I might pass out from the intensity. I willingly yielded to the Spirit and He took me over, as His vessel, to pray out His will and plans. Brother or sister, if you will press into God, He will use you and His power and Glory will fill your church. I know this is foreign to the church today, but that is how the early church started and that is how it will end.

I would pray five to six hours a day in these meetings. That is how ministry is supposed to be done. I witnessed so many miracles, healings and salvations that I cannot tell them. Seek Him!

A LOOK AT 2017

I want to preface what I believe the Spirit of God is saying about 2017 with these words. Today it seems, so called prophets are a dime a dozen and declare all sorts of things about the new year, the end of the world, food shortages and the move of God. Very, very few of these declarations are from God. It is people trying to make it appear they are hearing from God and fool many people. Don't be taken in by all these false declarations. The Spirit of God will let you know, in your own spirit, if it is correct or not. The majority of it is a bunch of bunk, junk and hogwash, as Dad Hagin used to say.

2017 will bring many to their knees, as the Lord completes His work in the spiritual realm that started in the natural realm. He will awaken His people to pray because it is necessary to enter into this new day. Those who do not take heed will fall behind and spiritual darkness will overtake them because they will not obey Him.

A new breed of preachers shall arise, with fire in their eyes, as they proclaim His will. With His Glory and Power, they will be filled. Church organizations will be shaken to their core as Jesus Christ stands at their door. Out of Zion, the lion of the tribe of Judah shall roar, for all the world to see. Those who have been faithful will praise God and shout in victory as His Glory they shall see!

PARTNER WITH US

For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve, Saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Caesar:and, lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee. Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer:for I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me. (Acts 27:23-25)

The Lord spoke to me and said, "There is coming a shaking in the financial realm of this nation. Every sector of the financial world will be affected. It will not affect you, your ministry, or your ministry partners like it does the world around you. Fear not! I will take care of you and I have given you all them that sail with you as I did with Paul." This has proven true again and again over these years. Just like the Apostle Paul, I have believed God and it was even as it was told me!

There are those to today who promise people things, if they give to them, that the Bible does not promise. This is not new. Dad Hagin wrote a book on this subject before he moved to heaven. Support your local church and pastor with your tithes and offerings. Partner with ministries as the Lord leads and you will reap a good financial harvest.

EFFECTUAL DOOR SPECIAL

Many Christians don't understand that there is a spiritual realm that effects all that happens in the natural realm. However, if we're wanting to change things, it must be done in the spirit first, then it will manifest in the natural realm. These two messages will help you learn how to get into the spirit and how to understand when the Holy Spirit is moving and what He is about to do. These messages will be a blessing to you.
