RANDALL GRIER MINISTRIES

And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. (Acts 2:4)

Is it possible to have grandall, & RANDALL, & RANDALL GREEN you are praying for your a great move of God today? Will there be a great outpouring of the Spirit of God? Will the prophecies of the old time saints about the great last move of God come to pass? Will the remnant church become a mighty army before the coming of the Lord Jesus? The answer is easy, yes. The method to bring it to pass is not easy on the flesh. It requires commitment, dedication, crucifying the flesh and Spirit-led intense prayer.

There is a price to pay to have the outpouring of the Spirit of God. We must take hold of God, and not let go until we see the fire of Heaven fall upon ourselves, our churches, our families, our communities, our nation, and the nations of the world! Every revival or outpouring of the Spirit in church history began with a group of people praying. Should we think we can have it any other way?

I was stirred by the Spirit of God to pursue the end time spiritual outpouring of His anointing and power. I was praying for our nation when this began.

was greatly concerned about our nation as I prayed. I was in prayer a n d supplication when the Lord Jesus spoke to nation is not, necessarily, going to bring the change you desire. Until the church changes, there is not going to be any greater change for the better in your nation. Things will get worse."

I was surprised when I heard Him say that to me. It was not what I wanted to hear. I had been praying for several hours a day, about the nation and other things, over a period of a few weeks. I didn't understand about how the church needed to change. I knew there were problems in the church with seducing spirits and refusing to be led by the Spirit of God. I still wondered how all this related to what the Lord said to me.

Have Need Of Nothing

Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked.(Rev.3:17)

In prayer, the Lord revealed that most of the church today is like the Laodicean church. They think they have need of nothing.

The Laodicean church was seduced into thinking they were pleasing to the Lord Jesus. They said they were rich and increased with goods and had need of nothing. They did not perceive that Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit was grieved with them. They were having church without the approval of our Lord Jesus. Jesus was standing at the door knocking wanting them to let Him in. This is true today in the modern, so called, seeker friendly progressive church, including fleshly-led pentecostal faith churches. Their pride led them to believe they were pleasing to the Lord. Jesus Christ said they were wretched, miserable, poor, blind and naked.

I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot. So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth. (Revelation 3:15-16)

Like many today, the Laodicean church considered works unimportant. Jesus Christ said, "I know thy works." He had to be watching their actions in order to know their works. The lifestyle of Christians was very important to Jesus. God is good and His mercy endures forever, but He expects us to live according to the principles of the Bible. He said He would spue or vomit them out of His mouth. He told them to be zealous and repent. He loved them enough to let them correct their ways.

Except the LORD build the house, they labour in vain that build it: except the LORD keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain. (Psalms 127:1)

The above scripture was the keynote scripture of Rev. Kenneth E. Hagin's life and ministry. He said the only key to success was to pray and find out what the Lord says to do and do it. Dad Hagin would always point out that they did get the house built, but all their labour and actions were in vain. It was not approved by the Lord. That is what happened to the Laodicean church.

We are in great need for a spiritual outpouring in the church today. We must not be like the Laodicean church and say we have need of nothing. I have been led to pray for this outpouring in a greater way than I can ever remember. The burden of prayer is upon me day and night. I find myself awake at night praying for this move of God. I am sure the Spirit of God has been leading others to pray the same way. Every move of God began with someone praying for it. May we all yield to His Spirit and pray until the Glory falls.

How To Pray

Remember, when I was praying for the nation, the Lord told me that the church needed to change. He said, "Pray for the awakening of the church so they will see their need and seek Me in prayer."

I was so moved by this request to pray this way and I have been greatly concerned about the condition of the lukewarm church as I prayed. In these times, I have also examined myself and presented all my weaknesses to the Lord Jesus Christ. I sensed that I had not completely surrendered to God as I should, and asked Him to forgive me and help me to fully do so.

I wrestled with the powers of darkness who desired to stop me from earnest prayer that I knew was needed to bring change. All sorts of natural, worldly issues arise that want to bring me back from the realm of the Spirit and meeting with God.

Many forms of entertainment presented themselves to me, calling for me to relax and not be so serious about prayer. I would find myself almost yielding to them. The devil would say, "You look stupid doing all this when most others are not. They think you have lost your mind and are too religious. If all this praying were necessary, they would be doing it too. You look like a fool being so serious about the things of God. You are wasting your time and God doesn't hear you anyway. You will never see your prayers answered so just give up."

These have been very real temptations, just as Jesus faced the devil in the wilderness. I know I cannot give in to them, even though they are very enticing to the flesh. Some don't realize how much Satan does not want us to seek God.

It is worth noting, that before Jesus Christ walked in the power of the Spirit, He had to overcome the devil and the flesh in the wilderness. This is a word from God to us all, "You will either go willingly into the wilderness or you will be driven there by harsh, unpleasant circumstances that are coming upon the church and nation unless we repent." Jesus bore His own cross and you must bare your own. I know many don't believe this because of the false, unbiblical grace doctrine in the church. They didn't believe Noah in his day either.

Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. (Matthew 16:24)

No matter what that preacher said, you have to bare your own cross. Jesus Christ said take up your cross and follow me. Who are you going to listen to? Most of the church has been taught there is no sacrifice, commitment or dedication on their part. They have been taught Jesus did everything and all you do is believe. That is a half truth, but not the whole truth. You must believe and take up your cross and follow Him, and crucify your flesh. He will not do that for you. If you continue to live a worldly life and desire amusement and entertainment more than desiring God, you will find yourself so far away from Him that you don't even know Him or desire Him

Dad Hagin Prophecy/Prayer

"God is speaking forth His plan; God is speaking forth His purpose. But, you see, you are the Body of Christ. That great move of God that is just waiting there, cannot come unless the Church gives birth to it. Remember that Paul writing to the Church at Galatia said, "My little children of whom I travail in birth again, until Christ be formed in you."

May we be so dead to the flesh, so dead to selfishness, but so yielded unto the Spirit as we do the works of righteousness and perform the works of God so that the acts of God are made manifest in us. For we are in the end times. We face the last days when armies shall gather at Armageddon.

That day will come. But there will also come a sweeping harvest that sweeps across the world and around the globe because we prayed—because we dared to stand in that place of prayer. We dared to stand in the gap, to make up the hedge, and to intercede for the land.

Thus, the work of God shall be accomplished, and that which the Lord desires for the last days shall come to pass. And the harvest shall be reaped, the angels shall rejoice, men shall be blessed, and the glory of the Lord shall shine round about us brighter than the noonday sun. In the name of Jesus Christ, amen."

May we all take heed to what the Spirit has said. The great outpouring is there for us to obtain in prayer.

Ceiling On Your Life/Ministry

In 1986, Dad Hagin gave his testimony about how he had been under great opposition from the devil. He was not one to talk about things like this, and didn't tell anyone until he had the victory. He told about how he had encountered many evil spirits and other natural pressures that caused him to want to give up. He said he prayed for the Lord to let him come on to heaven.

He said the devil caused all this because he was moving into another phase of ministry and tried to stop him. In other words, the devil was trying to place a ceiling on his life so he would not fulfill the plan of God for his life and ministry. The good news is that Jesus Christ brought him through and he went on to serve God for many more years.

The truth is that we all, especially ministers, encounter this same thing, if we are truly serving God. The devil will put a ceiling over your life, ministry or church. When you try to break through that ceiling, all hell will break loose against you to stop you. Jesus faced this in the wilderness when the devil tempted and tested Him. He overcame the devil and came out of that wilderness experience in the power of the Spirit!

Sifted As Wheat

I was praying before speaking at a church in Canada in November. The Lord said, "Satan is going to sift the church as wheat, especially ministers, during these times."

And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat: But I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren. And he said unto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee, both into prison, and to death. And he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me. (Luke 22:31-34)

Jesus warned Simon Peter that Satan desired to have him and sift him as wheat. Jesus told him that He had prayed for him. He went on to tell Peter that he would deny knowing Him three times before the rooster crowed. In Matthew 26, Peter told Jesus he would die with Him before he denied him. Jesus told all the Apostles that they would deny Him. They said, like Peter, that they would die with Him also. They all denied Him.

After this, Jesus and the Apostles went to the garden. He told them to pray that they not enter into temptation, because the spirit truly indeed was willing, but the flesh is weak. Instead of praying, they went to sleep while Jesus prayed. He woke them up a couple times and warned them that it was necessary that they pray to overcome the temptation they were about to face. They did not do what He said. The strong temptation came when Jesus Christ was arrested. They all denied knowing who Jesus was, even Peter. They had seen Him cast out devils and heal the sick. He had given them the anointing to cast out devils and heal the sick, and they did. They had seen Him raise the dead, feed thousands with just a little food and even walk on water. They denied Him because they lacked the anointing to overcome the devil and flesh. You will do the same if you do not pray before you are tempted.
