WALKING IN THE SPIRIT

*If we live in the Spirit,
let us also walk in the Spirit. (Gal. 5:25)*

There is a clarion call going out to every Christian, from the Lord Jesus Christ, to live and walk in the Spirit.

It is also true that a Christian could live and walk in the natural ways of life and miss what God is doing in the earth. Wouldn't it be sad to live your entire life and never really live and walk in the Spirit? Never really knowing the Lord Jesus Christ or His perfect will for your life?

My experience with God was one of intense desire to know Him. In fact, I had no other choice because my life was in a miserable mess when I was born again. I was on escape from prison when my life took a big change as I turned to the Lord with all my heart. My life seemed hopeless at that time.

When I got back to prison, I started praying and seeking God in desperation. I was facing life without parole in prison. I was filled with the Holy Ghost in the prison chapel and spoke in tongues. I began to pray in other tongues for hours each day. I didn't know what I was doing, but somehow I knew that was my only hope. Many times I didn't feel anything or get revelations.

PATTI, RANDALL, & RANDALL GRIER JR.

After praying this way for about a month I had a breakthrough. The Spirit of God began to speak to me in a still small voice. I believe He was there all the time. I just got in the Spirit enough to pick it up. It takes time to get your senses quiet and hear His voice. This is true even if you have been serving the Lord for years.

Led By His Spirit

One day, I was kneeling by my prison bed praying. The Lord led me to talk to a guy named La T. Da, who supplied dope for some of the inmates that had drug habits. The Lord wanted me to tell this guy that He loved him. I didn't want to get mixed up with this guy because he was a practicing homosexual, sold drugs, and ran around with a pretty bad crowd. This crowd would kill you.

About once a month someone would be attacked or killed in the prison I was in. I lived in an atmosphere where people fought continuously and were murdered out of anger. But the Lord wanted me to go tell La T. Da that He loved him. So I approached La T. Da and told him God sent me to tell him that He loved him. I didn't know how he would react, but he just hung his head.

He told me he used to serve the Lord, but backslid and killed a person in a robbery. I witnessed to him as the Lord led me to. I knew that he would die soon and told him that.

One day he walked into the prison chapel during service. He walked, almost ran, down the aisle as he approached the front of the church. I met him there. He had been a murderer, thief, homosexual, drug addict, liar, and cheater, but I knew that day God would change him! We grabbed each other and hugged and cried for about ten minutes. He repented and cried out to God.

When I stood back and looked upon his face, it shone as the face of an angel! The glory of God shone from him and God saved him from all his unrighteousness. You could see the change in him immediately! He told me then that he would not participate in homosexuality or bring drugs into the prison as long as he lived. He didn't realize the magnitude of that statement; for he was about to give his life for his belief in Jesus Christ!

Soon after, because La T. Da had been supplying drugs, some of the guys, especially one that he had practiced homosexuality with, started to put the pressure on him. They told him if he didn't come back to their side, they were going to kill him. They told him to leave Jesus alone. La T. Da came to me with these threats on his life.

He did not go to the authorities with it because if the other inmates found out, he could be killed in his sleep. Not all inmates are like that and neither are all prisons, but that is why we couldn't go to the authorities. He continued serving the Lord and this group of inmates continued to pressure him as they were inspired by the devil.

La T. D, another guy and myself were praying in the chapel about five o'clock one day. La T. Da decided to go to the dormitory and clean up and get ready for chapel service that night. He was washing his face and cleaning up when his ex-partner in homosexuality came up from behind, never said a word, spun him around by the shoulders, and plunged a knife into his heart. He pulled the knife out and stabbed him again in the neck.

I wasn't in the dormitory, but the guys there said La T. Da turned around and looked at him and said, "Man, I ain't got nothing against you." Then La T. Da turned and walked toward his bunk, falling dead in a pool of blood. Some other Christian brothers ran and grabbed a blanket and threw La T. Da on it, running with him to the prison hospital. I could see outside the chapel and when they passed by I knew they carried La T. Da. I prayed that La T. Da wouldn't die, that he would live in the name of Jesus. The Lord spoke to me about his death.

He told me that the devil had taken his life. He also said that it was best that La T. Da come on to heaven because he got his life in order. The Lord said, "You will see him when you get here." Glory!

La T. Da is in Heaven now with Jesus Christ and I know if he were here, he would cheer me on and help me all he could to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ to bring deliverance to those bound by the powers of darkness! God didn't kill La T. Da, the devil did! La T. Da went so deep into sin that it cost him his life to come out of it. The price of sin is too great for you to pay! Jesus is the answer! The fact is, that if I had not been walking in the Spirit, I would have never known that he was going to die soon. I also would never had told him about Jesus Christ, forgiveness of sin and eternal life.

Spiritual Things

I know that the Lord is always trying to lead us by His Spirit in situations like this. If I had the space I could tell you of other experiences I have had, like this, with La T. Da.

It is said that China will soon be the largest Christian nation in the world. Many of us have been praying for China, other nations and our own country for years. If it is to be the largest Christian nation, why is that? It is because persecution, poverty, oppression and other problems force them to HAVE to pray if they are going to survive. They need Jesus.

It was the same in the United States years ago. When we encountered wars and a failing economy, the nation turned to God in prayer. Now that we have a great measure of success, many don't need God. Many will not see the importance of seeking God in prayer until problems arise.

I have had enough problems, poverty and oppression in my life in the past. That is why I pray today, because I don't want those things to happen again. If we walk in the Spirit today we will avoid most problems tomorrow. That only happens through praying and meditating on the Word of God. It also takes crucifying the flesh and spending quality time with the Lord.

A Revelation In The Spirit

Last night I was awakened by the Spirit of God. The Lord began to speak to me about our nation. I have been praying the Ephesians chapter one and three prayers for sometime. I have been praying that the Lord would show me great and mighty things which I knew not. Of course, that should be a lifestyle with all of us. This is the way to help us walk in the Spirit of God.

In the Spirit, I saw a demonic spiritual storm hovering over the United States. I knew this storm was being held back by the prayers of the saints, temporarily. If the church quits praying, this storm of persecution would invade the nation.

God's Thoughts On Impeachment

The day the announcement was made to start an inquiry to impeach President Trump, the Spirit of God Spoke to me.

He said, "Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing? The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the Lord, and against his anointed, saying, Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us. He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision. Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, and vex them in his sore displeasure. Yet have I set my king upon my holy hill of Zion."

(Psalms 2:1-6)

I know this originally applied to our Lord Jesus Christ, but the same principle, from God, applies towards Mr. Trump. Anytime the Lord speaks to me, He always gives me the principle from His Word such as the above related to our president and what will happen in this impeachment process.

God laughs about it! They are silly to think they can overcome the Lord's plans. I join the Lord, Ha! Ha! Ha! The Lord God stands with His praying church that is walking in their spiritual authority in the name of Jesus Christ! Victory has already been decreed and declared from the heavens on this issue. Laugh with God and praise Him for the victory!

The Struggle To Walk In The Spirit

Walking in the Spirit comes from living in the Spirit. None of us can live the Christian life without the Holy Ghost enabling us. If you attempt to do it in your own ability, you will find yourself struggling in the flesh. You will try hard to live right for a while, only to find your flesh causing you to fall. It will be a never ending struggle of ups and downs. You will feel good when you do it right and when you give into the flesh, you will feel guilty and condemn yourself.

Sadly, the majority of Christians live this way today. That is how the false doctrine of unbiblical grace came into the church. The leader of this unbiblical doctrine struggled this way, by his own admission, in his Christian life. He constantly felt guilty for failing and condemned himself. The devil gave him a pseudo grace that made him feel better about his weaknesses, inabilities, failings and condemnation. He struggled in the flesh to walk in the Spirit. Now he feels good, not walking in the Spirit, and teaches others how to feel this way too. Millions embraced this lie.

The message of unbiblical grace, simply makes people feel good about not walking in the Spirit, and living a worldly, un-sanctified lifestyle. Those who are taught this are convinced that the conviction of the Lord is from the devil. They are taught to harden their hearts to His correction.

Desire To Walk In The Spirit

You have to have an earnest desire to walk in the Spirit or you never will. It is yielding totally to God, His will and being obedient to Him. You must have a desire to become acquainted with the Lord Jesus Christ. This will mean leaving the life of the flesh, parties, social clubs and the normal backslid Christian life behind.

Kathryn Khulman said she had died a thousand deaths to have His Glory. Do you know what she meant by that? It means she encountered at least one thousand desires she had, in her flesh, that stood in the way of her and God's Glory. She had to take up her cross, crucify her flesh, and desire God more than those things. Yes, you will encounter things that you will have to die to.

It will be hard on the flesh, but the rewards are beyond this world! Just ask Jesus Christ if it was worth it. Don't you really desire to know the Lord in this life? Do you want to continue to go through the motions of church and Christianity and never really know him. These things are not taught today because we have the world in the church. People would have to admit they are wrong for bringing the world into the church, to preach them, so they don't. Many think preaching on dedication, consecration and sanctification is preaching condemnation today. How sad.

How To Walk In The Spirit

There are keys that will help us walk in the Spirit.

For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit. (Romans 8:5)

The first thing is to be willing to renounce all carnality and crucify the flesh. Putting God first by seeking Him in prayer must be a priority. Put aside fleshly things you enjoy and spend time in prayer. Offer those things as a sacrifice on the altar of God. If you have believed in unbiblical grace, you were taught this is not necessary because Jesus did it all and you do nothing.

The next thing is spend time meditating deeply on the Word of God. Ask the Lord to impart to you the revelation of His Word. It is better to have revelation of a scripture than to read the whole Bible and not really understand it.

Next, obey what the Bible says. Jesus expects you to do so. He did not obey the Bible for you. You must obey it yourself. His Spirit gives you the ability to obey it. You will receive His strength and ability.

Next, pray in other tongues as you wait on Him. It is the language of God that you are speaking. You are praying out mysteries and revelations. He will reveal Himself to you on a level like you have never known before!
